

Use the images provided as inspiration for your own artwork and use the idea of repeating patterns in nature. Find a repeating pattern in nature, photograph it and draw from reference either using the primary source or your photograph. Think about composition of your page and use of lines and colour.

