

A local author is leading a new initiative in your neighbourhood to get young people writing creatively. She wants to select the best ones to put into an anthology of stories.

Write a description suggested by the picture below.

OR

Write a short story about a character that is having a terrible day.