Why do we collect and use student information?

We collect and use student information under the Education Act 1996 and the EU General Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) which took effect from May 25, 2018, including Article 6 'lawfulness of processing' and Article 9 'processing of special categories of personal data'

We use the student data:

- a) to support student learning
- b) to monitor and report on student attainment progress
- c) to provide appropriate pastoral care
- d) to assess the quality of our services
- e) to keep children safe (e.g. food allergies, or emergency contact details)
- f) to meet the statutory duties placed upon us by the Department of Education

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the lawful bases we rely on for processing student information are:

- For the purposes of (a), (b), (c) & (d) in accordance with the legal basis of Public task: collecting the data is necessary to perform tasks that schools are required to perform as part of their statutory function
- For the purposes of (e) in accordance with the legal basis of Vital Interests: to keep children safe (e.g. food allergies, or medical conditions)
- For the purposes of (f) in accordance with the legal basis of Legal obligation: data collected for DfE census information
 - Section 537A of the Education Act 1996

- The Education Act 1996 s29\(3\)
- The Education \(School Performance Information\) \(England\) Regulations 2007
- Regulations 5 and 8 School Information \(England\) Regulations 2008
- The Education \(Student Registration\) \(England\) \(Amendment\) Regulations 2013

In addition, concerning any special category data:

- Conditions a, b, c and d of UK GDPR – Article 9

Collecting student information

We collect student information via admissions forms, Common transfer files from county or secure file transfer from previous school.

Student data is essential for the schools' operational use. Whilst the majority of student information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain student information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Where we share student data such as school photographs on the school website, on social media or in the local press, you have a choice in this, and we request your consent for this to be shared.

Consent can be withdrawn at any time by contacting the headteacher and asking for student photographs not to be shared where public have access.

Storing student data

We hold student data in line with the recommendations of the Information and Records Management Society <http://irms.org.uk/page/SchoolsToolkit>

In practice this means we hold student data until the student reaches 25 years of age.

Who do we share student information with?

We routinely share student information with:

- Schools and colleges that the students attend after leaving us
- Our local authority
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- Youth support services (students aged 13+)
- Excalibur Academies Trust
- School nurse and NHS

Aged 14+ qualifications

For students enrolling for post 14 qualifications, the Learning Records Service will give us a student's unique learner number (ULN) and may also give us details about the student's learning or qualifications

Why we regularly share student information

We do not share information about our students with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share students' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our students with the (DfE) under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Students) (England) Regulations 2013.

Data collection requirements:

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

Youth support services

What is different about students aged 13+?

Once our students reach the age of 13, we also pass student information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
- careers advisers

A parent / guardian can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth is passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child / student once he/she reaches the age 16.

For more information about services for young people, please visit our local authority website.

Department for Education

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections. We are required to share information about our students with the Department for Education (DfE) either directly or via our local authority for the purpose of those data collections, under:

We are required by law, to provide information about our students to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Students) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the student information we share with the department, for the purpose of data collections, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-student-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our students from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to student information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>
